

VERY GOOD WORK AT PRIZE SHOOTING

The Albemarle Club Will End
Its Season Next Saturday.

The regular Saturday shoot of the Albemarle Gun Club on yesterday was attended by a large number of shooters and visitors, despite the cool weather and the high wind which prevailed on the shooting grounds.

The most interesting feature of the shoot was the contest for 800 shells, donated by the Peters' Cartridge Company and E. W. Woods and Son, of this city. There was much rivalry among the shooters, and those participating in the shoot made a creditable showing.

Class A—First prize, 125 shells—Mr. Edward Landrum.

Class A—Second prize, seventy-five shells—Messrs. Calvin Farmer and Albert Boschen tied, breaking sixteen clay pigeons out of twenty-five.

Class B—First prize, 125 shells—Mr. Luther Page.

Class B—Second prize, seventy-five shells—Mr. Roy Cary.

Class C—First prize, 125 shells—Mr. D. Lowry.

Class C—Second prize, seventy-five shells—Mr. W. T. Witt.

Class D—First prize, 125 shells—Mr. H. W. Cary.

Class D—Second prize, seventy-five shells—J. W. Cary.

Mr. Luther Page, besides receiving a prize of 125 shells in the first prize of class B, was high gun for the week, breaking twenty-three pigeons out of twenty-five times up.

The season of clay pigeon shooting of this club will end on next Saturday, and doubtless a large crowd will be in attendance. More prizes will be given out at this closing event.

Information Wanted.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir—Can you or any of your readers give me any information in regard to any officer who served in the Fifth or Sixth-third Virginia Regiment in the Civil War?

THE LEAST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH QUALITY.

THE HUB

Splendid Suits, $12.00 to $15.00

Finest Suits Made, $16 to $30

We have adopted a standard, below which we will not go in buying clothing. The cloth must be the best for the money. The tailoring must be perfect. The style and fit must be right! If you prefer to pay a tailor twice as much, it is your privilege, but it looks like bad judgment.

Boys' Suits, $1.48

Boys' Suits, $3.00

Boys' Suits, $7.50

And all the Prices Between.

Have You a Top Coat?

The few dollars it cost you may be a fine investment by saving you a doctor's bill, or worse. $7.50 may look big and $18.00 bigger, but neither are as big as the values you get in Hub Top Coats for the same money.

Hats $1.00 to $3.00

No matter what price you select they are the best hats we could get to sell for the money, but our $3.00 soft or derby hats are nearer our idea of a good bargain. Not one cent of your money goes for name or anything but quality.

Uncle Sam Shoes

Represent the three degrees of comparison, good, better, best. They are like the Irishman's whiskey, none are bad, but some are better than others. Prices $2.50 to $3.50 for Men's, $2.00 to $3.00 for Boys, and every air guaranteed. Do you suppose the makers could afford to guarantee them if they were not sure of their worth.

Men's Furnishings.

This weather calls for a change in underwear. Call up the Hub, or better, come by and select your winter supply. We have a full assortment of weights as well as prices; 48c, 98c and on to $2.50 a garment.

Remember we keep the Wright also the Glaxtonbury makes—they are the best we know of.

See our new fine lines of Neckwear.

CAN PLAY BETTER.
Notwithstanding this defeat, Captain Jones, of the Carolina team, thinks his men can put up a better game, and that Virginia will not have a snap on Thanksgiving Day in Richmond.

Carlin Hart, of Georgetown, said he hadn't the slightest doubt his team would win, and he thought the Carolina boys played remarkably well in holding the score down, especially in the first half, when just one-third the total score was made in a longer time.

The fact is that Carolina was pretty well played out at the end of the first half.

Neither team reached here until this morning. To-night they are the guests of Manager Wells at the Granby Theatre.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHASE CITY, VA., October 24.—The arrivals at the Mecklenburg this week have been unusually good for the season.

yards. After that the ball went up gradually for a touchdown by Martell, but the wind prevented a goal. Score 8 to 0, in favor of Georgetown, in about eight minutes' play.

On the next kick off Carolina got the ball and twenty-five yards on an off-side play, and Mann broke through the ends for two gains of fifteen yards each. Then Georgetown got down to work. Carr made a strenuous effort to advance.

On the last down, Jacobs made a supreme trial and barely got through the necessary five yards. Then it was lost. At this point Carolina played harder than at any stage of the game. Georgetown could not make progress and the backs' kick was resorted to. Newton put it out for fifty-five yards and Jacobs gained thirty in a fine sprint. He was downed nicely by McGintire, and then Reilly got in the game, relieving Cromley at left half.

A FAKE KICK.
At this point Carolina made a pretty play and some gains. On two downs no advantage was secured, and the signal for a kick was made. Georgetown's men spread out to head the looked-for kick. But it didn't come. The ball was passed back to Newton, who, instead of punting the piskin, made a dart through the opposing line. He gained fifteen yards before he was downed. Following the kick play was resorted to in fact, but with the heavy wind against the ball, only ten yards was made and the ball went over to Georgetown.

THE GREAT REILLY.
Then it was Reilly's game. By sheer strength he waded through the Carolinians for twenty-five yards, and continued through in successive scrimmages to a touchdown, and Carroll kicked goal, making the score 11 to 0 for Georgetown.

Mahoney then kicked off to Robertson, who had succeeded Newton at full. Ten yards was gained, and Jacobs retired. Newton took his place at half. A series of plays placed Carolina in the position of probably losing the ball on downs or resorting to a kick. The latter was tried and Robertson kicked for forty yards. Carroll caught the ball and made a slight gain.

In the next scrimmage a double pass was made from McGuire to Hart on Reilly for a gain of fifteen yards, and on a foul Carolina got thirty-five yards as a penalty. To prevent losing on downs Georgetown punted, and the ball came back to them from Carolina on downs.

In the next scrimmage Carolina braced up and held hard for Georgetown, and the mighty Reilly lost ground, but anything happened, time was called for the first half.

During the intermission a crowd of the Georgetown rooters, who came to Norfolk with the team marched around the field, while the band played "Hawahalia."

SECOND HALF.
No encouragement came to Carolina in the second half. Early in play, Wright was relieved by Foust, and in less than five minutes' actual playing, but what seemed like an hour to the spectators, who by this time were soaked by the rain, Reilly had skirted Carolina's left end for a touchdown, and Carroll had kicked goal, increasing the score to 17.

Carroll kicked to Foust, and Carolina gained fifteen yards. In the snap Engel kicked. This play was followed by quick, snappy work on the part of Hart and Reilly, and the latter went over for another touchdown, making the score 22, as no goal was kicked.

EASY FOR GEORGETOWN.
By this time Georgetown was having its own way and Carolina showed conclusively that she was outplayed at every point. It was getting very dark, and the rain was still coming down, although it did not dampen the ardor of the rooters.

"We must make some more points, boys," said Reilly, and the boys agreed with him.

Martell kicked off to Mann, the latter bringing the piskin back for a gain of ten yards, and an additional ten was given for an off-side play. Then Burkeley went in for Mann, and immediately fumbled, whereupon Reilly got the ball and on successive gains went over for still another touchdown. Carroll kicked goal, and the score stood 28 to 0.

Then, as darkness was settling over the field, and the motormen on the trolley right in the distance were already ringing their gongs, the sensational play of the game occurred.

THE LAST TOUCHDOWN.
Carolina had the kick-off, and Robertson kicked. The ball was like a wafting Hart. He darted away for the opposite goal, and eluded every man except Robinson, who downed the doughty Hart on the very verge of a touchdown. In half a minute Martell carried the ball over, and the score stood 33 to 0 in favor of Georgetown, for Carroll missed goal.

At no stage of the game did Carolina stand a chance of scoring. Georgetown had things their own way almost all the time. The game must have been rougher playing in the scrimmages than was apparent to the observer from the stand; otherwise Carolina's best men would not have retired. It was a hard thing to see up Carolina's line, but it would seem to suggest that Virginia will have little trouble in winning out on Thanksgiving Day unless the Tar Heels put up better resistance than was displayed today.

CAN PLAY BETTER.
Notwithstanding this defeat, Captain Jones, of the Carolina team, thinks his men can put up a better game, and that Virginia will not have a snap on Thanksgiving Day in Richmond.

Carlin Hart, of Georgetown, said he hadn't the slightest doubt his team would win, and he thought the Carolina boys played remarkably well in holding the score down, especially in the first half, when just one-third the total score was made in a longer time.

A Book and Six Bottles

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

On Trial to the Sick.

The cost is absolutely nothing to you if my Restorative fails. I simply ask you to learn by actual trial what this remedy can and will do. I want people to know what I know about this prescription. There can be no safer, no more certain way to convince the sick than to say "Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month on trial." And that is just what I will do if you write me. I know absolutely that it will help you if you will use it. I know you will willingly bear the cost—$5.00—if it succeeds. I know this, because for five years I have made this offer everywhere.

Thousands have written for my book—have accepted my offer—and only one out of each 40 has said, "It did not help me." Just think of it. My past records show that 39 were helped where 40 tried the Restorative. I am proud of that record. I failed with one in 40—but there was no expense to that sick one.

I cannot cure cancer. No medicine can. There must be some failures. Dr. Shoop's Restorative will do the utmost that medicine can. It is my greatest achievement, after thirty years in hospitals and at bedside. I have found, at last, a way to cure even obstinate, deep-seated diseases.

I treat—with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—the inside nerves. Here lies the secret of my success. It is my discovery. My Restorative is the only prescription that reaches these nerves. Without this inside nerve treatment, I could not offer "a month's treatment at my risk." No other known remedy would stand the test.

In thousands of homes it is now constantly kept as a safeguard. Off days will come to us all, but a few doses will set things right again.

How to Secure Trial Treatment.

Send no money. Simply ask for the book you need. A postal will do, or sign the coupon. Then I will arrange with a druggist near you, so that you can secure six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative to make the test. Send me no money. You go to your druggist, remember. Use the Restorative a full month—then decide. If it succeeds the cost to you is $5.00; if it fails I will have the druggist bill the cost to me. Could anything be more fair?

To delay, means to forget. Write now, while you have it in mind. This is important.
